

2016 Scholarships and Grants – NEW DEADLINES

Undergraduate & Graduate College Tuition Scholarships

All applicants must be female undergraduate and/or graduate students majoring in film and/or video production at an accredited North Texas College or University. Restrictions apply. See Tuition Guidelines for complete details.

Deadline: Friday, June 24, 2016. Decision by August/ September 2016.

Feature & Short Film Finishing Fund Grants

Women In Film Dallas offers a finishing fund for both a short and feature film to a qualifying professional, student or corporate WIFD member to help complete an existing project. Qualifying Recipients of these grants will select the production house or third-party services companies (vendors) that will best help them complete their project. Grant monies will be paid directly to the participating production vendors.

Restrictions apply. See Finishing Fund Guidelines for complete details.

Deadline: Friday, APRIL 29, 2016. Finished Film Due December 2016.

High School Student Production Grant

Presented to a North Texas female High School student to produce an original short film (4 – 10 minutes). The purpose of this grant is to give the student the means to create a project that will help secure future work in the industry after graduation.

Reimbursement for production receipts on completion.

Restrictions apply. See High School Production Guidelines for complete details.

Deadline: Friday, APRIL 29, 2016. Finished Film Due December 2016.

Scholarships and Grants will be awarded at the 2016 Chick Flicks Film Festival

Please refer to the website for complete application guidelines
www.wifdallas.org

Women in Film Dallas is a non-profit organization and part of a global community that empowers, promotes and mentors women in the film, television, and digital media industry through networking, recognition, and educational opportunities.